Overview and Important Information

With an Esso™ card, you have access to over 1,800 24-hour sites and 1,100 truck sites in the UK. Esso™ service stations are conveniently located along busy motorways and across towns and cities. You can also use your Esso™ Card to refuel at Shell and BP sites.

You will be charged the pump price at Shell and BP garages.

You can collect Nectar points on fuel at participating Esso™ fuel stations.

All products outside of standard diesel including AdBlue are available for convenience with the Esso™ card but are also charged higher than advertised.

Using your card

Retail Refuelling Sites

Your PINs have been sent to you via email. You can also find your PINs on the portal under 'Card Management'.

1. Refuel your vehicle noting the pump number, volume of fuel drawn and your mileage.
2. Replace the pump nozzle and return to the cashier. All Esso™ stations require you to use your PIN. BP and Shell stations will require a signature.
3. Your receipt will show the volume of fuel drawn (not your price), check the receipt details carefully before signing.
4. Ensure that the correct fuel card is returned to you before leaving.
